MEMORANDUM

DATE: February 5, 1981
TO: The Press
FROM: Communication Office/Episcopal Church
SUBJECT: Feb. 25-27 Meeting of Executive Council

The Executive Council of the Episcopal Church will meet Feb. 25-27 at Seabury House, Greenwich, Conn. Members of the press are invited to attend the meeting, though housing is not available at Seabury House. Motor hotels are available in the area. The press may take meals at Seabury House; reservations should be made in advance to this office by Feb. 17. Payments for meals taken at Seabury House should be made directly to the manager.

This session of the Council is expected to hear a report of the ad hoc committee on affirmative action, act on proposed stockholder responsibility resolutions, and hear a report on marketing practices of Nestle, S. A.

The meeting will begin with worship Wednesday morning at 8:30, with most of that day and evening and early Thursday morning devoted to committee sessions. Plenary sessions, with reports from the standing committees, are expected to begin at 10:00 a.m. Thursday, run through Thursday afternoon and again Friday morning.

It is important that members of the press who plan to attend reserve meals which are desired at Seabury House and notify the Press Office so that sufficient docket materials and seating space may be provided. Reservations should be made through the Press Office no later than TUESDAY, FEB. 17.
